When should an Unnamed Horse Transfer of Ownership form be completed?

Any change of ownership of an Unnamed Horse born from 2016 onwards must be advised on an Unnamed Horse Transfer of Ownership form within four (4) weeks of the transfer taking place.

Who is required to sign the form?

All owners relinquishing their interest as well as all new owners must sign the form. The Manager may sign the form on behalf of all remaining owners (being those owners who are neither relinquishing nor acquiring a share in the horse), provided there are no changes to the share percentage of each remaining owner. The Manager must notify all remaining owners of the transfer of ownership in advance. By signing this form, each new owner consents to any future changes to the ownership composition and structure of the horse, provided there are no changes to the share percentage of each remaining owner.

By signing this Unnamed Horse Transfer of Ownership form: (a) each owner agrees that RA, or any Principal Racing Authority, to the maximum extent permitted by law, is not liable to make any payment for any claim, loss or liability that may arise from the Manager signing an Unnamed Horse Transfer of Ownership or Change of Share % on behalf of that owner; and (b) the Manager indemnifies RA, and any Principal Racing Authority, against any claim, loss or liability that arises from that Manager signing a Transfer of Ownership or Change of Share % behalf of another person.

The new owners (transferees) are responsible for lodging the form.

What if I cannot obtain the signature of an outgoing owner?

All reasonable attempts must be made to gain the signatures of the relinquishing owners. If the signature of any owner cannot be obtained then the Unnamed Horse Transfer of Ownership will not be recognised.
